

International Travel & Tourism English

The specialized course is designed for anyone working – or intending to work – in the international Tourism market. It is for the students who need English for communicating and negotiating within the international travel and tourism market and involves lots of listening and reading input, with systematic vocabulary coverage.

An engaging course which develops the learner's fluency through a series of communicative tasks and vocabulary exercises and ideal for people about to enter – or already working in – the tourist industry.

Specific emphasis is placed on encouraging students to communicate in typical tourism-related contexts.

The course also covers the vital English structures needed to read brochures and other travel-related information, ask questions and understand replies.

The course focuses on key tourism-specific situations and covers core language, vocabulary, grammar and pronunciation. Each course session contains an extended output activity and a vocabulary list.

Course Special

The small number of students per class ensures effective teaching with the flexibility to meet your individual needs, in a comfortable and friendly atmosphere. You have a progress test and a personal tutorial with your principal teacher each week.
